Introduction

This guide lists selected current resources available through the University of Georgia Law Library that will help first years survive and prosper in law school. It includes materials on general law school survival skills as well as materials on each of the subjects in the first year curriculum. Each book listing includes that item's call number and location in the library. The law library does not purchase case books or study guides, so those particular resources are not included. This guide is a general resource provided by the library. First year students should also pay particular attention to items placed on reserve by their professors.
