Homecoming and Reunion
Weekend 2005

A record-breaking crowd of over 1,000 alumni and friends were on hand at the 15th Annual Homecoming BBQ. Attendees enjoyed good food, music and conversation before heading down to Sanford Stadium to watch the Bulldogs beat the Arkansas Razorbacks 23-20. Photos of Homecoming and reunion activities follow.

1965 graduates gathered at the Athens Country Club to reminisce about old times. ▶

◀ Celebrating their golden anniversary are members of the Class of 1955 with their partners.

Taking a ride in the Georgia Law Blue Book Express are Development Administrative Assistant Gloria Strait (driver), John Creson (J.D.'73) (front seat), Kate Felton and Jule Felton (LL.B.'55). The Blue Book Express was a gift to the school from Dean Emeritus Ralph Beaird, Executive Director of Development and Alumni Programs Jill Coveny Birch, Gary Blasingame (J.D.'61), Henry Garrard (J.D.'71) and James Matthews (J.D.'83). ▶

◀ First-year student Jennifer Blakely (left) enjoys a break from studying. Here, she is with friend Janie Hayes, Charlie Hunnicutt (J.D.'75) and brother-in-law Christopher Blakely (right).

▲ The young and the old always enjoy the music played by alumni band "Strung Jury - Legends in Their Spare Time," composed of Tim Herring (J.D.'85), Dennis Helmreich (J.D.'86) and Greg Gronholm (J.D.'85). Above, the young dance to a tune.

▲ Law School Association Immediate Past-president Jim Ellington (J.D.'87) and his wife Michele share a laugh with new Georgia Law Assistant Professor Usha Rodrigues (center).

▲ After checking in, Claire Crumbley, Alex Crumbley (J.D.'66) (center) and Felton Jenkins (LL.B.'65) smile for a photo.

▲ In honor of Strung Jury's 15th appearance at the annual BBQ, group leader Tim Herring (J.D.'85) presents Executive Director of Development and Alumni Programs Jill Coveny Birch with a band sign and framed group photo.

▲ Two future Law Dawgs – Ella with mother Ansley Bell Threlkeld (J.D.'01) (left) and Lawton IV with mother Jennifer Auer Jordan (J.D.'01).

Triple the fun! Alumnus Patrick Millsaps (J.D.'00) (right) enjoys a day in Athens with his wife Elizabeth and their three infants – (l. to r.) Kendall, Morgan and Alison. ▶