The Brussels Seminar

AIM OF THE SEMINAR

The principal aim of the Brussels Seminar is to provide a group of interested American law students with intensive exposure to the law and institutions of the European Communities. The creation of an integrated internal market by 1992, as contemplated by the Single European Act, will be the subject of particular attention in Seminar discussions. In addition, the student participants will be given an opportunity to explore and discuss the influence on the United States of the economic, social and legal integration being achieved in the Common Market.

BACKGROUND NOTE

This will be the seventeenth session of the Brussels Seminar. All of the sessions have been organized with the support of Professor Dean Rusk, Samuel H. Sibley Professor of International Law at the University of Georgia, School of Law, and have been directed by Professor Gabriel M. Wilner.

The Brussels Seminar is conducted in cooperation with Professor Jean-Victor Louis, President of the Institute of European Studies, Université Libre de Bruxelles (ULB) and Professor Bart De Schutter, Director of the Program in International Legal Cooperation of the Vrije Universiteit Brussel, (VUB).

The seventeenth session of the Brussels Seminar will receive its principal financial sponsorship from the Dean and Virginia Rusk Fellowship Fund at the University of Georgia Law School. This session of the Seminar will also benefit from the financial sponsorship of The School of Law, St. Louis University.

Further support will be extended by the Commission and Court of Justice of the European Communities and friends and alumni of the Seminar.

How To Apply To Become A Participant In The Brussels Seminar

The Brussels Seminar will take place from 3 to 20 July, 1989. Thirty qualified student participants will be selected from among United States law students. While preference is given to students who have completed at least two years of law training, students who have finished one year of law training can also be admitted on the basis of previous work in areas of relevance to EEC law. Students are encouraged to attend the second period of the Hague Academy of International Law on Public International law (24 July to 11 August 1989) upon completion of the Brussels Seminar.

TO APPLY PLEASE send the following information in the letter of application:

1. Name
2. University and year of study
3. Courses taken in the areas of international law and regional economic integration
4. Name(s) of your Professor(s) in the field as reference
5. Addresses at which you may be reached from the time of application to the beginning of the seminar (3 July, 1989)
6. Whether you plan to attend the second session of the Hague Academy of International Law.

Your letter of application should be sent by April 10, 1989 to:

Professor Gabriel M. Wilner
Director, Brussels Seminar
School of Law
University of Georgia
Athens, Georgia 30602

For information regarding The Hague Academy of International Law, please address your letter to: The Hague Academy of International Law, Peace Place, The Hague, Netherlands. Your application to the Hague Academy should be sent as soon as possible in view of current limitations on places available.

ARRANGEMENTS REGARDING TUITION AND ACCOMMODATIONS

Participants will be provided free tuition including books and other study materials, and free lodging and breakfast for the period of the Seminar. The students will also be guests of the Seminar for the excursions to Bruges and Luxembourg, and at receptions and dinners organized for the Seminar. Facilities for lunch and dinner will be available at the Universities at a greatly reduced price. A registration fee of $320 will be payable by each participant upon arrival at the Seminar. Each participant will be expected to provide his or her own transportation from the United States to Brussels and return. The Seminar will not pay any expenses of spouses or others accompanying participants.
