

Homecoming 2002

The School of Law's annual Homecoming barbecue continues to be the law school's biggest alumni function each year. This year was no exception with nearly 800 in attendance. It is hard to pass on the chance to reminisce with old schoolmates, relax with family, eat tasty barbecue, and enjoy good music (courtesy of alumni band Strung Jury) all in the splendor of the North Campus Quadrangle on a fall October day. Below please find a few good moments captured by our cameras.

Associate Dean Paul Kurtz is liked by young alumnae Claudia Campo (left) and Natalie Woodward despite the fact he is wearing a Vanderbilt hat. Thank goodness the Bulldogs beat the Commodores later that afternoon!

Barbara Davis talks with Bert Crane Jr. (LL.B.'62), Elizabeth Crane, Jerry Rachelson (J.D.'62) and Maryann Rachelson.

Ural Glanville (J.D.'87) (left) and his family, wife Lisa, daughter Leslie and son Evan, pose with Dean Emeritus Ralph Beaird.

Young and old alike got into the spirit with tattoos. Pictured is Keith Crump, guest of Ralph Spain (J.D.'51), who shows off his face paint.

2002-03 LSA President Paul Painter (J.D.'74), Norman Fletcher (J.D.'58) and Sonny Seiler (J.D.'57) share a few moments. Seiler was very kind to bring Uga VI to the barbecue this year. Many alumni and their families were excited to meet and get a picture with the UGA icon.

Enjoying the afternoon are (back) Michael Sullivan (J.D.'00), (middle, l. to r.) Rebecca Sullivan, Judi O'Kelley, Jillian O'Kelley, Kilpatrick Chair in Corporate Finance and Securities Law Charles O'Kelley, (front, l. to r.) Joshua Moore (J.D.'01) and Ciaran O'Kelley. O'Kelley was happy his twins arrived on December 31, just in time to count for 2001 taxes!

Sharing a drink are (l. to r.) Ellen Davis, Jerry Davis, Drew Ernst (J.D.'77), Kathy Ernest, Alex Johnson (J.D.'77) and Judith Johnson.

Homecoming provides a great opportunity for family and friends to get together as exhibited here - (back, l. to r.) Morris Braswell, Sidney Trimmier, Ewan Bleeker, Stephen Boswell (J.D.'74), (front, l. to r.) Derek Davis, Anita Johnson (J.D.'98), Audra Braswell, Tallulah Trimmier, Madeline Braswell, Annette Boswell, Ansley Ruggeri, Nicholas Ruggeri, Johnny Ruggeri and John Ruggeri. Anita Johnson clerked for Morris Braswell. Ansley Ruggeri is the daughter of Stephen Boswell. The Trimmiers are the parents of Madeline Braswell. Bleeker and Davis are friends of the group. Photo courtesy of The Picture Man, Inc.

