Homecoming 2002

The School of Law's annual Homecoming barbecue continues to be the law school's biggest alumni function each year. This year was no exception with nearly 800 in attendance. It is hard to pass on the chance to reminisce with old schoolmates, relax with family, eat tasty barbecue, and enjoy good music (courtesy of alumni band Strung Jury) all in the splendor of the North Campus Quadrangle on a fall October day. Below please find a few good moments captured by our cameras.

Associate Dean Paul Kurtz is liked by young alumnae Claudia Campo (left) and Natalie Woodward despite the fact he is wearing a Vanderbilt hat. Thank goodness the Bulldogs beat the Commodores later that afternoon!

Barbara Davis talks with Bert Crane Ir. (LL.B.'62), Elizabeth Crane, Jerry Rachelson (J.D.'62) and Maryann Rachelson.

Ural Glanville (J.D.'87) (left) and his family, wife Lisa, daugh-▶ ter Leslie and son Evan, pose with Dean Emeritus Ralph Beaird.

Young and old alike got into the spirit with tattoos. Pictured is Keith Crump, guest of Ralph Spain (J.D.'51), who shows off his face paint.

Enjoying the afternoon are

(back) Michael Sullivan

(J.D.'00), (middle, l. to r.)

Jillian O'Kelley, Kilpatrick

Chair in Corporate Finance and Securities Law Charles

Rebecca Sullivan, Judi O'Kelley,

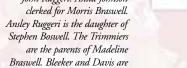

Sharing a drink are (l. to r.) Ellen Davis, Jerry Davis, Drew Ernst (J.D.'77), Kathy Ernest, Alex Johnson (J.D.'77) and Judith Johnson.

friends of the group. Photo courtesy of The Picture Man, Inc.

Fall 2002

Advocate