

Reunion Weekend 2001

Reunion Weekend 2001 Rescheduled

Reunion Weekend 2001 festivities were postponed last year due to the dreadful events of September 11. So, the law dawgs from the classes of 1951, 1956, 1961, 1966, 1971, 1976, 1981, 1986, 1991 and 1996 made a trek to Athens to celebrate their anniversaries the weekend of September 20-21, 2002. The weekend started with a Friday night dinner in the Alexander Campbell King Law Library. It was followed by a pre-game tailgate party, the Georgia vs. Northwestern State football game and private class parties on Saturday evening. Over 120 law dawgs and their families participated in the festivities. Pictures and remembrances can be found on this page.

Class of 1971

Class of 1971

I recall when a group of us were doing research while trying out for the Law Review in the library one Saturday morning. D. Meade Feild came by and said, "Damn a man that can't get his work done by Friday afternoon."

-E. Clay Bryant Jr., Athens, GA

Class of 1976

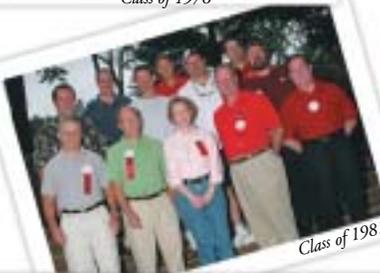

Class of 1976

My favorite professor? It would be hard to tell. I had several I really liked. Of course, everybody likes Perry Sentell because he's just tough but very good. I like Ron Ellington a lot and also Julian McDonnell and a fellow who's not here anymore, Professor Player. He was our real estate professor and, my freshman year, we had what were supposed to be two of the three hardest teachers - Player and McDonnell - but we didn't have Sentell. Well, our torts professor, Professor Rees, became ill so they transferred us to Professor Sentell so we had all three of them. Well, really it was good luck, I enjoyed Professor Sentell's class. That's probably why I'm in tort litigation. He's a good professor, tough but good.

-Alfred N. Corriere, Albany, GA

I recited the Palsgraf case in my freshman year and that was my highlight. The second highlight is we had a libel party the second year and it was absolutely wonderful. I played the piano and we put on a great production. I wish we had it on videotape.

-Richard H. Siegel, Atlanta, GA

Class of 1981

Class of 1981

My favorite memory is Professor McDonnell telling us on the first day of class that the A's and the Z's are always discriminated against so the L's were going to go first and Mr. Lasky had the first case for tomorrow.

-Jeffrey W. Lasky, Savannah, GA

I remember shooting fireworks off the deck at O'Malley's with Professor Ellington after exams.

-Don S. Lemmer, Glendale, CA

Class of 1991

Class of 1991

My fondest memory is of the relationships I established in law school. My favorite teacher? That's a loaded question. I'm going to plead the fifth.

-Andrea S. Nelson, Tallahassee, FL

Class of 1996

One of my favorite times is when David Gruskin asked Professor Kurtz about his tie when he got called on. He said, "What a nice tie." It totally diverted the whole class. Professor Kurtz talked about [it for] 10 minutes and then he said, "Was that long enough, Mr. Gruskin?"

-Holly A. Pierson, Charlotte, NC

Photos courtesy of The Picture Man, Inc.