

Reunion Weekend 2002

Reunion weekend for the classes of 1942, 1952, 1962, 1977, 1982 and 1992 was filled with much fanfare as it was held in conjunction with annual Homecoming festivities on October 19. Nearly 70 alumni and their families joined a crowd of over 800 people who enjoyed the annual BBQ tailgate on North Campus. Recollections and photos of these law dawgs can be found below.

Class of 1942

Class of 1962

The whole experience was absolutely wonderful. The thing is that all the classes were very close because we didn't have near as many [students] as they do now. You knew everybody in your class and the one that was above you and behind you. It was a lot of fun.

-George H. Carley, Atlanta, GA

Class of 1962

Class of 1977

My favorite time in law school was my third year. The reason is because we could have Professor Sentell and enjoy him.

-J. Alexander Johnson, Baxley, GA

Class of 1982

My best memory from law school is my best friend Tricia Griffith (J.D.'82), and it's still my best memory.

-Julia A. Langley, Menlo Park, CA

I enjoyed sitting in class listening to Dean Rusk talk about meeting with Gromyko [Andrei Gromyko, USSR Foreign Minister 1957-85] and discussing about how the Cuban Missile Crisis could have gone a different way.

-James T. Lobb, Louisville, KY

I remember the first day of orientation. I had just left the Navy and moved back to Georgia. Everyone else looked so young, and I felt so clueless.

-William D. Harvard, Athens, GA

Class of 1992

My favorite memory is winning the National Moot Court Championship.

-Gregory A. Gunter, Elberton, GA

The day I most remember is when Professor Kurtz required me to wear a Halloween costume of him to Con[stitutional] Law class.

-Warren R. Hall Jr., Atlanta, GA

First-Class Reunion

Oh, the joy of having a future Governor as a classmate ... The Class of 1972 celebrated their reunion in style at the Georgia Governor's Mansion in Atlanta on May 31, 2002, courtesy of classmate Governor Roy Barnes. Over 150 people enjoyed a first-class atmosphere as they reminisced about their days in Athens.

Photo courtesy of Laura C. Heath Photography

