A Message From The Dean

The University of Georgia School of Law is pleased to present to the bar of Georgia and to other interested persons and organizations the members of the Class of 1966.

Although relatively few in number, this class is one of real quality. And it is the considered judgment of the faculty that upon completion of their formal education here, its members will be well prepared to meet their responsibilities to the legal profession and to the people of Georgia and the nation.

The members of the faculty, the personnel of the Dean's office, and the Governor of Placement all stand ready to render every possible service to prospective employers. Inquiries may be addressed to the Dean, to Professor D. Meade Feild, or to the students involved, all of whom are eager to be of assistance.

Very truly yours,

Lindsey Cowen,
Dean
