LL.M. REUNION - 12TH ANNUAL MEETING
November 19 - 25, 2001 New Delhi, India

Sunday/Monday, November 18/19

Travel into New Delhi on Sunday. Most international flights land around midnight in India (night of 18/19). Jet-lagged alumni shall be met at the airport and taken directly to Hotel Imperial, our reunion hotel, in downtown Delhi. In the three thousand years of its existence, seven cities had risen where the present capital of India stands. Delhi is a fascinating blend of the ancient and the contemporary where medieval palaces and bazaars exist besides a modern metropolis.

- 12:30 – 5 PM      For alumni who would have recovered from the long flight, meet in the hotel lobby for a leisurely buffet lunch in the garden followed by a short tour of central Delhi.
- 7 PM                Welcome reception at 7PM (venue shall be informed) followed by a dinner at the Village Bistro – Roof Top Restaurant, “Top of the Village” – overlooking the monument of Hauz Khas, one of the seven cities.

Tuesday, November 20

- 10:00 – 5:30 PM      A guided sightseeing tour of New Delhi is a must. The trip shall start with Qutab Minar, Humayun’s Tomb, Lotus Temple and India Gate, the Indian equivalent of Arc de Triomphe. Lunch will be at a local restaurant (restaurant recommendations will be made). After lunch, sightseeing continued with a tour of Old Delhi visiting Red Fort, Jama Masjid and Raj Ghat.
- 7.30 PM              Meet at 7.30 PM (hotel lobby) for dinner at the Indian specialty restaurant “Bukhara” located at Hotel Maurya Sheraton. Renowned universally for its delectable North West Frontier cuisine, experience the rustic flavour at Bukhara where you are encouraged to eat with your hands! The ambience is decidedly rugged, and, you can even watch your meal being prepared in front of you.
- In a salute to the lore of the frontier, Bukhara brings to New Delhi their authentic cuisines. The rustic wooden decor of the restaurant is reminiscent of the rugged landscape of the exotic land. Even the menu is inscribed on a wooden palette. Instead of fussing with knives and forks, you are invited to slip on apron and eat with your fingers. The idea is to enjoy a no hold bar treat of the best food. Of course every dish, including the salad, is prepared in the tandoor, a clay oven. In keeping with the dictates of “malmastia”, or hospitality, the Bukhara menu boasts of a variety of kababs (minced meat), tikkas and varied food for the vegetarians cooked to perfection in the tandoor. The ambience of the restaurant coupled with the aromatic whiff of the food in the air .....the flavor of the frontier transports you to another world.
- 10 p.m. onwards      Time to explore Delhi nightlife!

This picturesque site was chosen by Raja Rajdeo and Neemrana derived its name from a brave local chieftain Nimola Meo who, when defeated by the Chauhans, pleaded that his name be given to his lost kingdom.

From 1986, the ruins of this Fort- Palace have been sensitively restored and

Agra - is the quintessential Mughal city, which was the capital of their empire in the 16th and 17th centuries, needs no introduction. It is where the world wonders at the magic monument of a monarch's love - the Taj Mahal. One of the Seven Wonders of the World, the Taj remains an extravagant and unparalleled marble monument of love, built by the fifth Mughal emperor Shahjahan in 1653, as a memorial to his queen Mumtaz Mahal. The city's narrow lanes still carry the flavour of their Mughal past. Proceed for the sightseeing tour of Taj Mahal and Agra Fort, an original red sandstone fort built by Shahjahan's grandfather King Akbar in 1565. Shahjahan added the marble palaces inside Agra Fort.

Lunch at a local restaurant.

After lunch, travel to Fatehpur Sikri, 38 kms. from Agra. This city was Akbar's capital built between 1570 and 1586, but, it was abandoned later due to scarcity of water. Today this complex of palaces is worth a visit

Sunday, November 25

After a relaxed morning, meet at the hotel lobby at 12:30 PM and proceed to "Chor Bizarre" for lunch. A "One of a kind" restaurant Chor Bizarre has atmosphere! Each corner is filled with memorabilia and bric a brac hand-picked from various "Chor bazaars" (Thieves Market) of the country. The interiors are innovatively created, with an old four-poster carved bed turned into a table and a loft filled with several items of memorabilia. Mobile, a classic 1927 vintage Fiat makes for a most imaginative salad bar. The music is a mix of vibrant Hindi film songs from the 50's and 60's interspersed with popular western numbers of the same period.

Chor Bizarre's cuisine is Wazwan. The Wazwan is Kashmir's most formal meal; a ritual serving before the guest of the entire food available in the house. This taste of hospitality must in turn be fully appreciated by the guest, for the wazwan is not a simple meal but a ceremony. Hours of cooking and days of planning go into the making and serving of a wazwan. Normally restricted to occasions of celebration at homes, the wazwan experience includes table settings for group of four on the floor where choice dish after dish is served, each aromatic with herbs and the fresh
