

Welcome Back

Welcome back to everyone in the Law School community. A special congratulations to the first year class for surviving their initial semester. The Law Library staff is pleased to see everyone again, and we wish you the best in 1998.

Reminder: Free Copies & Laser Prints

Once again, the Law School is providing each registered law student with 200 free copies or print-outs. To obtain your copies, drop a Copy Card off at Circulation, between 8am and 5pm, Monday through Friday. Make sure to write your name legibly on the Copy Card. Circulation Office staff will add the copies to your card, and you can pick it up the following day (again, between 8am and 5pm, Monday through Friday.

Please note that you may no longer obtain last semester's free copies unless you dropped your signed Copy Card off at Circulation before the end of the semester. Approximately ten students did drop off their cards and need to retrieve them. Also, a number of cards have been found in the Computer Labs and Copy Room. Please check with Circulation to see if your card has been returned.

Staff News

The Law Library staff bids a fond farewell to Leslie Madden, Circulation Manager, who has accepted a position at Georgia Tech as a Reference Librarian. While their gain is our loss, we are all pleased to see Leslie in a position that utilizes her two Masters Degrees (English Lit and Library Science). Congratulations, Leslie, and please keep in touch!

UN Launches Celebration of Universal Declaration's 50th Anniversary

This year, the United Nations celebrates the December 10, 1948 signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The celebration kicked off on December 10, 1997 (Human Rights Day). For more about this important commemoration, see the display case outside the entrance to the Law Library or check out http://www.un.org/rights/50/.

Lost & Found

The Law Library's Lost & Found section continues to grow. If you have lost something, please stop by Circulation. You will be asked to describe the missing item.
