

LAW LIBRARY
SCHOOL OF LAW

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

NEWS

Volume I, Number 5

February, 1985

Lexis Citator Enhancements

There have been several improvements in the Lexis system regarding access to Shepard's and Auto-Cite. You can now transmit your request for a citing service from any screen you are viewing by typing Shep or AC instead of pressing the Select Serv. key.

Further information on the Lexis enhancements is posted on the bulletin board in the Lexis Room in the Annex.

Westlaw

United States International Trade Commission documents are now available on Westlaw. The database includes: International Trade Commission Investigative Reports from 1979; ITC Administrative Law Judge Recommended Determinations and Orders and ITC "Public" General Counsel Memoranda. To access this material type in the identifier FIT-ITC.

Computer Training

Training on both the Westlaw and Lexis systems for second and third year students will begin on Monday, February 11th. A complete schedule will be posted and sign-up sheets for small group instruction will be available at the Circulation Desk. Training for first year students will begin in March.

Georgia Texts

The Library Staff has compiled a bibliography of titles which cover specific areas of Georgia law. This list is kept at the Circulation Desk with the Reserve Book lists. The majority of these titles are kept on permanent reserve.

Computer Bulletin Boards

Please take the time to check the Bulletin Boards in the Lexis and Westlaw Rooms. The Library Staff posts any notice of problems or changes in the system on these boards. Read the notices on the boards before you begin your research, it may save you time and frustration.

Recent Acquisitions

The following titles relevant to Georgia practice have recently been added to the Library collection:

1. Council of Superior Court Judges. Suggested Pattern Jury Instructions: Civil Cases, 2d ed. shelved on Reserve under Council

2. Roth, Larry M. and Rahdert, George K. Appeals to the Eleventh Circuit Manual shelved on Reserve under Roth.

Federal Procedural Rules

The West Publishing Company publishes two handy, one volume desk books containing the Federal Rules.

1. Federal Rules: Civil Procedure, Evidence, Appellate Procedure. This volume contains Rules of Civil Procedure with committee notes, Rules of Evidence, Rules of Appellate Procedure and the text of Title 28, U.S. Code as well as other selected items relevant to civil causes.

2. Federal Rules: Criminal Procedure, Evidence, Appellate Procedure. This volume contains the Rules of Criminal Procedure with Committee notes, Rules for Misdemeanors Before United States Magistrates, Rules of Evidence, Rules of Appellate Procedure and the text of Title 18, U.S. Code as well as other selected items relevant to criminal causes.

Both of these volumes are shelved in Reserve under United States.

U.S. Supreme Court Records and Briefs

The Library has in its microform collection the Records and Briefs for the United States Supreme Court from 1832 to date. Our subscription for the current court term is on microfiche. Many of the older records are on microfilm. Readers and a reader-printer for photocopying are available in the Audio-Visual Room, Room A211 Annex. Please contact one of the Library Staff members if you wish to use this material.

Library Hours - Closing**

Only those students or organizations who have special permission of the Law Librarian are permitted to remain in the Library building after regular hours. All other students must leave the building at closing time. We ask your cooperation in this matter.