Volume VII, Number 3

Finally, WESTLAW has recently included Callaghan's UCC Reporting Service and Hawkland UCC Series. The Hawkland database includes the text of the Uniform Commercial Code itself; official comments and major state variations, followed by Professor William D. Hawkland's analysis which unifies and interrelates all Code provisions.

WESTLAW AND LEXIS NEWS

LEXIS has added a new international law library with several new files. In this library LEXIS has included the American Society of International Law's International Legal Materials, CCH's Basic Documents of International Economic Law, and the European Community's CELEX database.

Did you know that both WESTLAW and LEXIS have online tutorials? The online tutorials are helpful to both beginners and those who perhaps need to review or reinforce their skills. On LEXIS the online tutorial can be accessed by choosing Select The WESTLAW tutorial Service. is available under Other Services and Databases. may choose Westrain or a Review tutorial. If you need help locating these tutorials, please ask the library staff or the LEXIS and WESTLAW student representatives.

Students looking for a job will be eager to search the full text of Martindale-Hubbell which is now online in LEXIS. The Martindale-Hubbell Library contains all United States, Canadian and International listings including professional biographies and geographical locations.

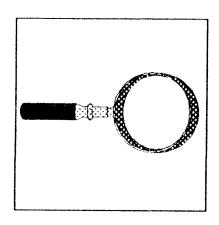

Since the last newsletter, both WESTLAW and LEXIS have added new databases which might be of interest to law students and faculty.

Students and faculty who follow ongoing developments in a particular area might like to set up a LEXIS ECLIPSE search which will update at daily, weekly or monthly intervals. LEXIS users who would like to set up an ECLIPSE search should see the Library staff or the Lexis student representatives.

WESTLAW has added the United States Code Annotated including all of the editorial enhancements, such as annotations, historical notes, and cross-references.

WESTLAW has also added

FROM THE CIRCULATION DESK

MISSING BOOKS

How many times has this happened to you: You go to the shelves to find a law review article or book which according to its title seems to be exactly what you are looking for, only to find the volume is missing???

The Law Library staff is receiving an increasing number of complaints from patrons who are searching for books which are missing from the shelves yet are not checked out to anyone.

We would like to take this opportunity to remind students and faculty that the Law Library is a professional library. We operate under the Honor Code system. We do not have guards on the door as other libraries do. Consequently, it is the responsibility of the law students and faculty to uphold this Honor Code system. Please consider this Honor

Code and also remember the needs of other library users when you remove books from the library shelves without checking them out.

EXAMINATION TIME

As exams approach, we would like to take this opportunity to wish all students good luck on their examinations. This is the time of year when nerves become frayed and tempers sometimes flare. During this time, please try to keep noise to a minimum.

Law students may be interested to know that the Law Library has copies of old examinations on Reserve.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN

Those law students and law faculty who wish to receive materials on interlibrary loan can speed up the processing of their requests by providing a full citation to the materials requested. It is particularly helpful if you include where you found the citation to the materials that you are requesting. We might also suggest that you look for your materials at the University's Main Library before making a request. Finally, be sure to plan ahead. You should allow at least two weeks for your materials to arrive.

LAW LIBRARY HOURS DURING CHRISTMAS BREAK

PHOTOCOPIERS

Students can help the Law Library staff keep the photocopiers operating more efficiently. First, always keep the lids closed on the photocopiers while copying because keeping the lid open wastes toner and damages the drums. When the drums become damaged, the copies come out with a streak down the middle of the page. Second, DO NOT attempt to repair photocopiers or refill them with toner on your own. Report any equipment malfunctions to the Circulation desk immediately. We will refund ten cents to any student whose copies are unreadable as a result of equipment malfunctions.

LOST AND FOUND

The Law Library keeps lost and found items at the Circulation Desk. If you have lost any items in the Library, please check with the Circulation Clerks. Items which are left on tables in the Library overnight are removed each morning and turned in to Lost and Found.

FOOD AND DRINK

As exams approach, law students tend to bring more food and drink into the Library. This is absolutely FORBIDDEN. Students who violate this rule will be asked to leave the Library with their food and drink.

COMPUTER NOTES

Students using the wordprocessing lab in the Annex should remember not to save their documents on the hard disks of the Library's computer. These hard disks are erased regularly and therefore students will be in danger of losing their materials. Instead, students should always save their documents on a floppy disk. If you have any questions about how to save your document on a floppy, please consult the library staff.

Students should also know that they may make a reservation to use a particular computer if they would like. There is a reservation sign-up in a black notebook labelled RESERVATIONS on the bookshelf in the computer lab.

LIGHTEN UP

For those third year law students who are struggling with filling out the Moral Fitness Applications for the Georgia Bar...

The Texas bar was not amused by signs of a sense of humor in a prospective lawyer.

Just ask law school grad Charles Malloy, who was denied permission to take the Texas bar exam because on his application, he didn't take the bar's questions seriously enough.

For example, when asked why he had been fired from an accounting firm in 1985, he answered, "Why don't you ask them and let me know, because I have been wondering now for 3 1/2 years."
