Lee H. Hamilton

Lee Hamilton is currently the president and director of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars and director of the Center on Congress at Indiana University, his alma mater. The former Congressman represented Indiana's 9 th congressional district for 34 years, beginning in January 1965. While in office, he served as chairman and ranking member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and chaired the Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, the Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran, the Joint Economic Committee and the Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress.

Hamilton previously served as vice-chair of the 9/11 Commission and co-chaired the 9/11 Public Discourse Project to monitor the implementation of the commission's recommendations. In 2006, he was named co-chair of the Iraq Study Group, created at the urging of Congress and charged with providing a forward looking, bi-partisan assessment of the situation in Iraq.

Hamilton is a graduate of DePauw University and the Indiana University School of Law. He is the author of A Creative Tension - The Foreign Policy Roles of the President and Congress; How Congress Works and Why You Should Care and co-author of Without Precedent: The Inside Story of the 9/11 Commission.

Sibley Lecture - "A Balanced View of American Power"

Lee Hamilton Co-Chair of the Iraq Study Group Former Vice-Chair of the 9/11 Commission

Established in 1964 by the Charles Loridans Foundation of Atlanta, the Sibley Lecture Series honors the late John A. Sibley, a 1911 graduate of Georgia Law. $e^{an} R_{u_{\phi}}$

This year's lecture will help to celebrate the establishment of the Dean Rusk Center – International, Comparative and Graduate Legal Studies in 1977. The center was created to expand the scope of research, teaching and service at the University of Georgia School of Law into the evolving international dimensions of law. It is named after former U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who taught at the law school for nearly 25 years.
