REPORT

Twenty-first Session of the Seminar on the Law and Institutions of the European Communities held at the Institut d'Etudes Européennes of the Université Libre de Bruxelles and at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel

2 July to 20 July 1993

Introduction

The Brussels Seminar is directed by Professor Gabriel Wilner, Professor of Law, University of Georgia in cooperation with Dean Eliarts and Professor Dr. Bart De Schutter, Director of PILC at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB), Professor Jean-Victor Louis, former President of the Institut d'Etudes Européennes of the Université Libre de Bruxelles (ULB) and M. Vanden Abeele, Vice President of the Institut. The Seminar enjoyed the support of Professor Dean Rusk of the University of Georgia Law School. The session also enjoyed the support of the Saint Louis University Law School. The facilities of the Institut d'Etudes Européennes and the Faculty of Law, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, are made available for the Seminar.

The 1993 session of the Brussels Seminar was supported by Dean and Virginia Rusk Fellowship Fund at the University of Georgia Law School, the Saint Louis University law School, the Edward Ball International Law Chair, at Florida State University College of Law, the Commission for Cultural Exchange, the Commission of the European Communities and personal grants from friends and alumni of the Seminar.

Participants in the Seminar

The student participants were selected from among U.S. law students who had demonstrated a significant interest and sufficient background in European law and related areas of law. Student participants were encouraged to attend The Hague Academy of International Law upon completion of the Brussels Seminar and 12 of them did so.

At the twenty-first session of the Seminar, thirty-five places were reserved for thirty-five student participants. Ten students from the University of Georgia attended the Seminar. Nine students from Saint Louis University Law School participated in the Seminar. Florida State University students used two of the six places reserved for them, and eleven other law schools in the United States were represented by one or two students.

Faculty

The faculty of the Seminar numbered twenty-eight. Among the criteria for their selection were expertise in the particular subject to be discussed by them the Seminar, fluency in English and interest in working with United States law students. It was also considered important to include persons primarily engaged in university teaching in EC subjects areas, persons whose main activities were within the Commission, Council and Court of the European Communities, and persons who act as practitioners before the Court of Justice of the E.C. and other decision-making bodies of the E.C.

Seminar Sessions

The 1993 session consisted of 15 working days. Most working days consisted of 7 or 8 hours of lectures or seminars.

The core elements of the Seminar were a series of lectures and discussions held at the Institute of European Studies (U.L.B.) and the Faculty of Law, Vrije Universiteit Brussel and attended by all the participants. A special Roundtable on "Europe in 1993" was held at the Centre Borschette of the EC Commission. A day was spent at the Court of Justice of the European Communities in Luxembourg where the students were briefed by Judges Joliet, and Kapteyn. Eighty hours were devoted to the lectures and discussions.

The history and structure of the E.C. were the subject of the lectures and discussions given by Professor Marc Maresceau. Professor Vandersanden discussed the sources Justice of the E.C. Judge Koopmans lectured on preliminary rulings (Article 177) by the E.C. Court of Justice, and generally on the relationship between national courts and the E.C. Court of Justice. Dr. Pipkorn, Dr. Taschner and Professor Wilner took up examples of the harmonization of private law legislation among the members of the Community, including products liability, company law, and the European conventions of jurisdiction and enforcement of judgment and on choice of law in contracts. Mr. Latham lectured on EC consumer protection law.

Mr. Bellis gave a course on trade regulation in the E.C. While Mr. Praet discussed the economic aspects of Community trade policy, and its monetary policy. Mr. Spinks spoke on rules of origin in the trade law of the EC. Mr. Seché spoke on the right of establishment and Professor Waelbroeck gave a course on the Community law on competition and discussed specific problems reflected in policies and judicial decision-making. Professor Sybesma lectured on the space law policies of the EC, while Mr. Smets lectured on European air transport law. Professor De Schutter spoke on European cooperation in penal legislation. An introduction to E.C. social law was given by Mr. Currall. Professor Van Thiel gave an introduction to tax law in the E.C. Mr. Schloch discussed the EC’s Common Agricultural Policy. Mr. Lawrence lectured on the legal aspects of the European Community’s external relations as well as its environmental policies. Mr. Van Lier spoke on the building of the single internal market. Professor Van Thiel discussed the relations between the EC and the Eastern European countries. Mr. Oliver lectured on customs barriers and measures having an equivalent effect. Mr. Jessens lectured on Telecommunications Law in the E.C.

Professor Wilner discussed questions relevant to the powers of the Community under international law to make arrangements and undertake other international activities; alternative views of the legal nature of the Community were also the subject of discussions by Professor Wilner with the participants. Mr. Te Pass, discussed EC development policies and the Lomé IV Convention.

Maitre Knops, of the Brussels Bar, gave an introduction to the Belgian legal system as an example of an EC national system. Mr. Spinks spoke on the role of the U.S. lawyer in the E.C., while Professor Waelbroek also gave a workshop on the practitioner before the E.C. court. Ms. Wendy Moore of the United States Mission to the European Communities gave lectures on US-EC Relations. Mr. Lars Erik Noordgård lectured on the EEA and Mr. Marc Pallemæerts discussed aspects of Global Environmental Policy from a European Perspective.

Examination

Several lecturers cooperated with Professor Wilner in giving an examination to those participants who wished to receive academic credit for their work and whose universities accepted the results of such an examination. Seventeen student participants took the examination, including most of the students from the University of Georgia, Saint Louis University and Florida State University.

Books and Study Materials

A month before the commencement of the Seminar each participant received by mail a general bibliography of E.C. law and institutions. Selected bibliographies in specific subjects were prepared by the lecturers. Moreover, outlines of the lectures and relevant EC Court of Justice judgments, decisions of the EC commission, and Conventions, EC regulations and directives were distributed and used for discussion purposes. Each student received a bound copy of the Rome Treaty creating the EEC and the Single European Act, as well as the Maastricht Agreement.

Additional Professional Activities

The participants took part in a Roundtable on "Europe in 1993" held at the Centre Borschette of the EC Commission where they heard discussions by Professor Louis and Messrs. Gosalbo Bono and Toledano Laredo of the Legal Service of the EC Commission. They also spent a day at the E.C. Court of Justice in Luxembourg where they attended a session of the Court and met at a luncheon Seminar with Judge Joliet and Judge Kapteyn. A visit to the Brussels Palace of Justice included further briefings on the Belgian judicial system by Maitre Knops.

Social Activities

Students and faculty seminar participants met at receptions at the Institut d'Etudes Européennes (ULB). The student participants were guests at the annual dinner held at the Hotel Astoria. The participants spent one Saturday on a visit to the art cities of Bruges and Damme. A special lunch was held with Judge Koopmans. The student and faculty participants met with Professor Wilner on several occasions for general discussions of the subject covered in the Seminar.

Administrative Arrangements

Mrs. C. Charlier of the Secretariat of the Institut d'Etudes Européennes (ULB) and Mrs. A. Lodens, Administrative Officer at P.I.L.C., Vrije Universiteit Brussel were the principal administrators of the Seminar.

Lodging and breakfast were provided for the participants on the campus of the Vrije Universiteit Brussel. Meals were available at the cafeterias of the two universities.

Evaluation forms were given to both student participants and the faculty. The views expressed will assist in improving the quality of the Seminar.

Financial Arrangement

The appropriate financial statement is attached to this report. Certain observations are appropriate in connection with the financial arrangements for the Seminar. The participants in the Seminar were provided with free lodging and breakfast, but had to provide for many other meals. On several occasions either lunch or dinner was provided by the Seminar, the E.C. Court of Justice, and the Institut d'Etudes Européennes (ULB).

The 21st Session of the Seminar was made possible thanks, in large measure, to grants from the Dean and virginia Rusk Fellowship...
Foundation, Saint Louis University Law School, Edward Ball Chair in International Law at Florida State University, the Commission for Cultural Exchange and the contributions of friends and alumni of the Seminar.

It is expected that grants can be received for the 22nd annual Session of the Seminar. The policy of the Brussels Seminar has been that, insofar as possible, the financial situation of students should not be a factor in their participation in the Seminar; thus costs to participants, while in Brussels, have been kept at a minimum. In order to carry out this policy, the continuing receipt of grants is necessary. Moreover, as of June 1993 the value of the U.S. dollar in relation to the Belgian franc was approximately 40% less than in July 1985. In planning for the 22nd session it is essential to bear in mind the declining value of the U.S. dollar and inflation in Belgium; expenses in Belgium must be paid in Belgian francs.
