The service contributions of the 1973 Law School Association scroll recipients extend over several milestone development years of the Georgia Law School.

Hamilton Lokey is a University of Georgia Phi Beta Kappa graduate of 1931. He was admitted to the Georgia Bar upon graduation from the Law School in 1933, and later served on the Board of Governors of the Georgia Bar Association.

Lokey entered law practice in Atlanta in 1933 and opened a partnership with Henry L. Bowden in 1939. He was elected to the Georgia General Assembly in 1953 where he served two terms. Last year he completed his second consecutive term as president of the Law School Association.

Oscar Smith, a native of Valdosta, is a partner in the firm of Matthews, Walton, Smith, Shaw and Maddox of Rome. He earned the LL.B. degree, Phi Beta Kappa, from the Law School in 1948 after graduation from Georgia Tech.
