The Brussels Seminar

AIM OF THE SEMINAR

The principal aim of the Brussels Seminar is to provide a group of interested American law students with intensive exposure to the law and institutions of the European Community within the new European Union. The process of completion of an integrated internal market, the remarkable expansion of the scope of the Community as evidenced by the Treaty on European Union which envisages an economic and monetary union and a political union, the accession of the new members of the EU and the further expansion of the Union, the fundamental changes in the political and economic systems in Central and Eastern Europe and the Community's reaction to them, and the challenges of the GATT-94, will be the subject of particular attention in Seminar discussions. The participants in the Brussels Seminar will explore and discuss both general and specific aspects of the economic, social and legal integration being sought through the Community. The impact of European political and economic integration on relations with the United States will also be reflected in Seminar discussions.

BACKGROUND NOTE

This will be the twenty-third session of the Brussels Seminar. All of the sessions have been organized with the support of Professor Dean Rusk, Samuel H. Sibley Professor of International Law at the University of Georgia, School of Law, and have been directed by Professor Gabriel M. Wilner.

The Brussels Seminar is conducted in cooperation with Professor André Sapir, President of the Institute of European Studies, Université Libre de Bruxelles (ULB) and Professor Bart De Schutter, Director of the Program in International Legal Cooperation of the Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB).

The twenty-third session of the Brussels Seminar will receive its principal financial sponsorship from the Dean and Virginia Rusk Fellowship Fund at the University of Georgia Law School and The School of Law, Saint Louis University.

Further support will be extended by the Commission and Court of Justice of the European Communities, by the Commission for Educational Exchange between the United States, Belgium and Luxembourg, and by friends and alumni of the Seminar.
