The Brussels Seminar

AIM OF THE SEMINAR

The principal aim of the Brussels Seminar is to provide a group of interested American law students with intensive exposure to the law and institutions of the European Community within the new European Union. The process of completion of an integrated internal market, the remarkable expansion of the scope of the Community as evidenced by the Treaty on European Union which envisages an economic and monetary union and a political union, the accession of the new members of the EU and the further expansion of the Union, the fundamental changes in the political and economic systems in Central and Eastern Europe and the Community's reaction to them, and the challenges of the GATT-94 and the World Trade Organization (WTO), will be the subject of particular attention in Seminar discussions. The progress made by the Inter-Governmental Conference which since early 1996 has been working on consolidating and advancing European Union integration beyond the Maastricht Agreements, will also be analyzed and discussed.

In celebration of the twenty five years of the Brussels Seminar, a Colloquium is planned on the nature of the evolution of European Union-United States relations at the threshold of the 21st century and beyond. The Colloquium will form part of the program of the 1997 session of the Brussels Seminar.

DEDICATION

The twenty-fifth session of the Brussels Seminar is dedicated to the memory of Professor Dean Rusk, Secretary of State of the United States from 1961 to 1969 and thereafter Samuel H. Sibley Professor of International Law at the University of Georgia School of Law. He played a key role in the establishment of the Brussels Seminar and honored the Seminar with his active support for twenty-three years thereafter.

BACKGROUND NOTE

The Brussels Seminar has been directed by Professor Gabriel M. Wilner since its inception in 1973. It is presently conducted in cooperation with Professor André Sapir, President of the Institute of European Studies, Université Libre de Bruxelles (ULB) and Professor Bart De Schutter, Director of the Program in International Legal Cooperation of the Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB).

The twenty-fifth session of the Brussels Seminar will receive its principal financial sponsorship from the Dean and Virginia Rusk Fellowship Fund at the University of Georgia Law School and from The School of Law, Saint Louis University.

Further support will be extended by the Commission for Educational Exchange between the United States, Belgium and Luxembourg, by the Commission and the Court of Justice of the European Communities, and by friends and alumni of the Seminar.

How To Apply To Become A Participant In The Brussels Seminar

The Brussels Seminar will take place from 3 to 20, July, 1997. Thirty-five qualified student participants will be selected principally from among United States law students. Students who have finished one year of legal training can be admitted on the basis of previous work in areas of relevance to EC law. Some preference will be given to students who have completed two or more years of legal training. Students entering into their third year of law study are encouraged to attend the second period of the Hague Academy of International Law on Public International Law upon completion of the Brussels Seminar.

To Apply Please send the following information in the letter of application:

1. Name
2. University and year of study
3. Courses taken in the areas of international law and regional economic integration
4. Name(s) of your Professor(s) in the field as reference
5. Addresses at which you may be reached from the time of application to the beginning of the seminar (3 July, 1997.)

Your letter of application should be sent by April 11, 1997 to:
