Georgia Legislative Documents Project

The Georgia Legislative Documents Project is digitizing Georgia's Acts and Resolutions and the Journals of the House of Representatives and Senate from 1751 through today. These historical records are widely available to the public through GALILEO (Georgia Library Learning Online). SGML encoding allows accurate full-text searching of the data. The documents are easily accessible for research by historians, genealogists, political scientists, and the legal community.

Phase I of the project converted the Acts and Resolutions from 1799 -1999. These documents are currently available on GALILEO. (This database is one of the GALILEO databases available to all citizens, and no GALILEO password is required to search it.)

The Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) has provided funding to begin Phase II. Conversion of the House and Senate Journals has begun; these documents should begin appearing online in Summer 2002. Journals from 1940 to the present will be converted first, followed by 1777 - 1939 as funds become available.

To be added as funding allows are other related documents, such as the Executive Council Minutes 1786 - 1793; rosters of public officials from 1751 through today as published in The Official and Statistical Register; and 38 volumes of Georgia colonial government records.

Participants in the Georgia Legislative Documents Project are:

Statewide Indexes

UCC Index - This index contains UCC financing statement data from all counties since January 1, 1995, and can be searched by name, taxpayer ID, file date and file number. Additionally, the actual image of the corresponding UCC statement can be downloaded.

Real Estate Deed Index - This index contains property transactions from all counties since January 1, 1999, including the name of the seller and buyer, location of the property, any liens on the property, and the book and page where the actual deed is filed in the county. Searches can be performed by name, property (subdivision, unit, block and lot) or instrument type, and can be done by county, region (i.e. a county plus all counties that border it) or statewide. Six years of historical data (real estate records from 1993 through 1998) are currently being added to the system and additional historical data will be added in the near future. Additionally, images of the corresponding real estate instruments (from participating counties) are currently being added to the on-line system.

Lien Index - Pursuant to HB1582, the Authority is expanding the statewide uniform automated information system for real and personal property records, (provided for by Code Sections 15-6-97 and 15-6-98), by the addition of a LIENS database. This effort will provide for public access to real estate and personal property information, including liens filed pursuant to Code Section 44-2-2. While the system is legislatively mandated to be operational by Jan. 1, 2004, the Authority has completed the development of the on-line database and search systems, and plans to make the system available for voluntary participation by counties, beginning Jan. 1, 2003. During 2003, only counties that voluntarily submit the standardized lien data and images will be included in the system. Participating counties will be indicated by the available list of searchable counties in the on-line search screens.

Notary Public Index - The Notary Public Search System is now live. Users will now be able to perform searches of the statewide notary public database.

Plat Index - The Plat Image search is a pilot program of Counties volunteering to post their plat images on our web site. Few counties are participating at this time, and only participating Counties will be displayed for selection. The only available search requires the user to enter the correct book and page in order to display the plat image. Future development will include plat index data on-line and an increased number of participating Counties.

Search Tips:
If searching for an entity with more than word in its name, better results may be obtained by entering only the first word in the name. Then, if the lengthy, search by adding the second word. It is usually best to search without punctuation. When searching by officer or agent name, it is best name of the individual, and then narrow the search as needed.
