Re: 2006-7 Curriculum

Date: April 20, 2005

As promised, attached you will find a tentative listing of the courses which I expect we will offer in 2006-7, your third year at the Law School. Some caveats are in order:

---Most importantly, understand that this is a plan, not a contract. Things happen in life which cannot be controlled. However, this is what I presently am planning for 2006-7.

---- The attached is a listing of the courses which I intend to be taught by permanent members of the faculty (and in one case a visiting faculty member and in another a hypothetical faculty member who we hope to hire during the upcoming academic year). This list does not include clinical courses and courses taught by adjuncts, visitors, etc. While staffing by adjuncts is necessarily a more contingent situation than staffing by permanent faculty, I am certain we will be offering a full array of courses taught by adjuncts and visitors, including:

Entertainment Law
Corporate Tax
Partnership Tax
Trial Practice
Military Law
Document Drafting
Use of Military Force
Advanced Immigration
Sports Law
Labor Law
Business Torts
Sexual Orientation Law
Estate Tax Planning
Patent Law

Criminal Defense Clinic
Prosecutorial Clinic
Family Violence Clinic
Land Use Clinic
Environmental Practicum
Civil Externships
Public Interest Practicum

---On the attached list you will see several entries of “TBD”—which stands for To Be Determined. Each of these courses (one each for Professors Beck, Dupre, Eaton, L. Johnson and Smith) will be a two-credit course. While the precise identity of these courses has not yet been determined, they likely will be within the area of the individual professor’s general teaching interests. They might be seminars or courses.
