The Edith House Lecture Series In Law

"Positive ('Affirmative') Action Within the European Economic Community" presented by

Professor Eliane Vogel-Polsky
Université Libre de Bruxelles
Faculty of Law
SEPTEMBER 25, 1985  3:30 p.m.

Professor Eliane Vogel-Polsky, a graduate of the Université Libre de Bruxelles, is a professor at the Université Libre de Bruxelles Faculty of Law, where she teaches labor law, comparative and international labor law, and European labor law. Professor Vogel-Polsky also teaches at the Institute of European Studies and the Institute of Labour. She has been a guest lecturer and professor at universities all over the world. Professor Vogel-Polsky's present research concerns minority groups in the labor market and includes a comparative study of affirmative action programs in the United States and positive action programs of various European countries.

Edith House, a native of Winder, Georgia, received the first law degree granted to a woman by the University of Georgia and was Valedictorian of the Class of 1925. Following her graduation, she practiced law for four years in Clearwater, Florida. She was then appointed to be Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Florida, a post she held for the next 30 years. When the Southern District was subdivided in 1963, she served as the U.S. Attorney for that district during the transition period. She retired in 1963 and lives in Jacksonville, Florida.

The Women Law Students Association is grateful to Dean Ralph Beaird and Ms. Gwen Wood for their continuing support of this lecture series. The series is made possible by the generous contributions of alumni, students, faculty, and friends to the endowment fund for the Edith House Lecture Series in Law. The series is partially funded by a grant from the American Bar Association/Law Student Division.
