Welcome to LawSource.com . . . the home of American Law Sources On-line (ALSO!), providing a comprehensive, uniform, and useful compilation of links to freely accessible on-line sources of law for the United States and Canada. (See also a link below for Mexico.) This site contains additional links to sources of commentary and practice aids that are available without charge (or available at a reasonable charge from governmental and nonprofit providers).

See a warning about "spoofed" e-mail from LawSource, Inc.

First-time visitors should read about using ALSO! the first time. Some visitors should read about finding an attorney and getting legal advice. Some might want to know where to lodge a complaint about a lawyer or judge.

Introductions to the legal systems of the United States, Canada, and Mexico are provided at a site maintained by the North American Commission for Environmental Cooperation (Quebec, Canada):

Introduction to the Legal System — United States • Canada • Mexico
Introduction au système juridique — États-Unis • Canada • Mexique
Introducción al sistema jurídico — Estados Unidos • Canadá • México

In addition, the U.S. Department of State provides a lengthy "Outline of the U.S. Legal System" (actually in narrative form). See also "How U.S. Courts Work" in 4 Issues of Democracy No. 2 (Sept. 1999), published by the U.S. Information Agency. Foreign-language versions are available: "Le Fonctionnement des Tribunaux aux États-Unis" (French); "El Funcionamiento de los Tribunales Estadounidenses" (Spanish).

Court Web Sites

This page provides judicial branch links for each state, focusing on the administrative office of the courts, the court of last resort, any intermediate appellate courts, and each trial court level. To simplify finding court addresses, we have created new pages for some state courts to provide comprehensive contact information and will gradually add links to specific district or courthouse Web sites on those pages rather than on this index page. We welcome the submission of links to court websites. Send your submissions to knowledge@ncsc.org.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

The Authority appreciates its subscribers and their contribution to the products that we deliver to the public. You are truly our partners in managing the vital data that we collect and display. Over the years, many of our subscribers have taken the time to give us feedback and make suggestions. We provide contact options for this on our website, and each suggestion is carefully reviewed and considered. I read many of these suggestions and all are routed to our technical staff for discussion and cataloging. We have a process by which we make system "bugs" our top priority for immediate action. New ideas are cataloged and compared with other user suggestions to determine when there is a strong demand for a new feature.

We consider YOU, our subscribers, to be our partners.

FEATURED CLERK

We're proud to feature Sherri Cochran who was elected Clerk of Superior Court of Burke County in 2005. Sherri began working in the Clerks' office in 1995 and served as Chief Deputy Clerk prior to taking office. She was raised in Burke County and received an accounting degree from Augusta Technical College. When not at the courthouse, Sherri enjoys reading, gardening, spending time with her family at the beach, and participating in her church's mission trips. When asked about being clerk, Sherri responded, "I love Burke County and consider it an honor to serve its citizens."

HB369 - New Civil Forms
HB369 was passed by the Legislature and signed by the Governor. Effective 1/1/2008, new fields have been added to the two Domestic Relations filing forms. These forms are now available on the GSCCCA website in the Files and Forms section. These forms are to be used ON OR AFTER January 1, 2008.
STATE INDEX SEARCHING

Find the documents you need.

UCC Index - This index contains UCC financing statement data from all counties since January 1, 1995, and can be searched by name, taxpayer ID, file date and file number. Additionally, the actual image of the corresponding UCC statement can be displayed and printed.

Real Estate Deed Index - This index contains property transactions from all counties since January 1, 1999, including the name of the seller and buyer, location of the property, any liens on the property, and the book and page where the actual deed is filed in the county. Searches can be performed by name, property (subdivision, unit, block and lot) or instrument type, and can be done by county, region (i.e. a county plus all counties that border it) or statewide. Historical data is being added to the system and additionally, images of the corresponding real estate instruments (from participating counties) are currently being added to the on-line system.

Lien Index - Pursuant to HB1502, the Authority is expanding the statewide uniform automated information system for real and personal property records, (provided for by Code Sections 15-6-97 and 15-6-98), by the addition of a LIENS database. This effort will provide for public access to real estate and personal property information, including liens filed pursuant to Code Section 44-2-2. The system began January 1, 2004.

Notary Public Index - The Notary Public Search System is now live. Users will now be able to perform searches of the statewide notary public...
Rules and Regulations of the State of Georgia

The Office of Secretary of State now provides an electronic version of the Rules and Regulations of the State of Georgia. NOTE: The Rules and Regulations of Georgia is a compilation of the rules and regulations of state agencies that have been filed with the Office of Secretary of State pursuant the Georgia Administrative Procedures Act, O.C.G.A.§ 50-13-1 et seq.

The electronic version of the Rules and Regulations on this website should not be regarded as the official copy. An “official” compilation of the Rules and Regulations of the State of Georgia may be obtained from the designated legal publisher of this publication.

This site will be updated monthly as new and amended rules are published.

Please contact our Administrative Procedures Division at (404) 656-2865 if you have questions regarding the content of this site. However, specific questions about the content of a particular rule or regulation should be directed to the appropriate state agency that adopted and filed the respective rule.

This site is searchable by the name of the agency, chapter/rule number, the name of the rule itself, or a specific rule number. For example, you may search for an agency such as, “Office of Secretary of States”, or by a chapter number such as “Chapter 590”, or by the name of the rule itself such as “Articles of Incorporation”. You may also search by a specific rule, such as “590-7-3-01”.
