115th John A. Sibley Lecture

presented by

Edward D. Kleinbard
Packard Trustee Chair in Law
University of Southern California
Gould School of Law

Hatton Lovejoy Courtroom, University of Georgia
February 5, 2018
3 p.m.
Edward D. Kleinbard

Edward D. Kleinbard is the holder of the Packard Trustee Chair in Law at the University of Southern California Gould School of Law and Fellow at The Century Foundation.

Professor Kleinbard, whose scholarship focuses on the taxation of capital income, international tax issues and the political economy of taxation, was one of four individuals honored as a 2016 International Tax Person of the Year by the nonpartisan policy organization Tax Analysts. He is the author of We Are Better Than This: How Government Should Spend Our Money and, in 2017, he co-authored the leading law school introductory income tax casebook. He has testified before Congress on tax policy matters and has written opinion pieces for The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Financial Times and other media outlets.

Professor Kleinbard joined the faculty of the University of Southern California in 2009. Previously, he served as chief of staff of the U.S. Congress’ Joint Committee on Taxation. Professor Kleinbard was also a partner in the New York office of Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton for more than 20 years.

He received his law degree from Yale Law School and his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Brown University.
Welcome and Introduction

Gregg D. Polsky
Shackelford Distinguished Professor in Taxation Law,
UGA School of Law

115th John A. Sibley Lecture – “What’s Government Good For?: Fiscal Policy in an Age of Inequality”

Edward D. Kleinbard
Packard Trustee Chair in Law
University of Southern California Gould School of Law

Questions and Answer Session with Professor Kleinbard

Reception in Hirsch Hall Rotunda

The Sibley Lecture Series, established in 1964 by the Charles Loridans Foundation of Atlanta in tribute to the late John A. Sibley, is designed to attract outstanding legal scholars of national prominence to Georgia Law. Sibley was a 1911 graduate of the law school.