SCHEDULE NOTES

- 1 For Legal Spanish 1, fluency is not required, but students should have at least an intermediate, conversational ability in order to fully participate. Please contact the instructor with any questions.
- 2 Students must enroll in both sections of this experiential course (hours and seminar) with the total credit hours evenly divided between both sections. The OfCourse scheduling system shows the average number of credits; Athena will permit students to enroll in a permissible number of variable hours (for example, 2, 3, or 4 hours in each section). Please consult the instructor to ascertain the possible total number of credit hours for which you should enroll. This course is permission only.
- 3 For Banking Law, this class will not meet on October 4th, October 11th, October 25th, and November 8th.
- 4 This course will meet for seven weeks during the semester. Some weeks may shift, depending on the professor's schedule.
- 5 This course meets every other week. Weeks that the course does not meet are reserved for required 1L CDO programming.
- 6 This class is permission only.
- 7 Students must enroll in both sections of this experiential course (hours and seminar) with the total credit hours evenly divided between both sections. This course is permission only.
- 8 This course has a prerequisite. Please refer to <https://www.law.uga.edu/course-offerings> on the law school's website.
- 9 NATO Externship
- 10 Foundations of American Law. This course meets once a week for a 75-minute class in Brooks Hall 145. Students must also sign up for a recitation section at one of the listed times.
- 11 This course will include both undergraduate and law students.
