Spots Before Your Eyes

HAROLD HIRSCH HALL.
Built of all-Georgia products.

After several years of untiring efforts to complete the law school's new home, Harold Hirsch Hall sprang up almost over night. Never in the history of construction has a building been completed in such a short time. Plenty of fresh air for all class rooms is an outstanding feature of the new lawyer home. (See cut.)

BACK ENTRANCE TO THE UNIVERSITY.

—1896—

Thousands of Georgia men cross this threshold to begin a new life. Life's sweetest moments are spent after a Georgia man has put his foot within this magnificent structure. This entrance to Georgia is probably the most loved and most popular of all our doorways. When a man crosses this threshold, he never forgets . . .

ENTRANCE TO WOODRUFF HALL.

Special staff photo of the scene of the crime rushed to the BANDORA by ox-cart and buggy. Rare is the man who has not submitted to grand larceny to get inside and TRY to hear some tenth rate orchestra. Woodruff Hall has perfect acoustics for sweet music. The fall of a brick in the center of the room could easily be detected—provided it hits you. Woodruff's birds have learned to sing in tune with anything, especially speeches.
