

A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITORS

Published here are the proceedings of a Special Law Professor Workshop held at the University of Georgia School of Law on May 7th and 8th, 1982. This Workshop, entitled Coping With Internal Conflicts: Dilemmas in International Law, was held to honor Professor Dean Rusk for his many years of service and enduring contributions to world peace.

We would like to thank all of those people whose efforts contributed to the success of this Workshop: Mr. Morris Leibman and Dr. Bernard Ramundo of the Standing Committee on Law and National Security of the American Bar Association's International Law Section, which sponsored this Workshop; Professor Gabriel Wilner, who did such an excellent job organizing the Workshop; the members of the Georgia Society of International and Comparative Law, including the members of the Society's Colloquium Committee: Michael Quilling, Tom Herbelin, Kent Murphy, David Hegwood, Thomas Scott and Diane McNamara, who gave so freely of their time and efforts to ensure that everything ran smoothly; and especially the panel members and Workshop participants who contributed their ideas to the goal to which Professor Rusk has dedicated his life—lasting peace.

As the editors of these proceedings, we are honored to have had the opportunity to participate in this lasting tribute to Professor Rusk.
