Thomas J. Striepe
Faculty Services Librarian
Alexander Campbell King Law Library
University of Georgia School of Law
Athens, Georgia 30602

Dear Mr. Striepe:

This letter is in response to your request for permission to reprint the following article:

Pursuant to agreements with the author, the Washington and Lee Law Review has authority to grant you the following rights, and as Executive Editor, I am an authorized agent of the Washington and Lee Law Review.

The Washington and Lee Law Review grants you permission to cite, quote, or reproduce any portion of the article in whole or in part. The above permission is subject to the following conditions:

i) Full credit must be given both to the author of the article and to the Washington and Lee Law Review;

ii) The article must be cited as shown above;

iii) You must also obtain permission from the author of the article, as she is the exclusive holder of copyright privileges in the article.

This letter constitutes the sole permission between the University of Georgia’s Institutional Repository, Digital Commons, and the Washington and Lee Law Review with respect to the citation, quotation, or reproduction of the above-named article. Any modifications or additions to the terms of this letter shall be in writing and with the consent of the Washington and Lee Law Review.

Sincerely,

/s/ Laura E. Erdman
Executive Editor
Washington and Lee Law Review