

THE DEAN RUSK AWARD

Given each year to the author of the most outstanding paper written on a topic concerning international or comparative law was conferred upon

FREDRICK C. EISENSTEIN

for his paper

ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS OF EUROPEAN TRANS-
FRONTIER POLLUTION: NATIONAL PREROGATIVE
AND ATTRIBUTION OF RESPONSIBILITY

Judges for the Award this year were:

Professor Dean Rusk, University of Georgia School of Law

Professor Ferdinand Stone, Tulane University School of Law

C. Donald Johnson, Attorney at Law, Powell, Goldstein, Frazer
& Murphy, Atlanta, Georgia