The staff of the Georgia Journal of International and Comparative Law would like to express once more our appreciation to Professor Dean Rusk and Professor J. Ralph Beard (Acting Dean 1972-1974) for their continuing interest and generous support. Additionally, we welcome Dean Neill H. Alford to the University of Georgia and thank him for the concern and understanding he has already shown for the Journal. Of course, the Journal would not be possible without the help and support of many members of the staff, faculty and administration of the School of Law and we are grateful to all these individuals.

Among the members of the faculty, there is one for whom we are particularly grateful. Professor Gabriel Michael Wilner has concretely and unfalteringly expressed his belief in the importance of the Journal's work and has unselfishly given of himself to aid the Journal in attaining excellence. He has taken the time to become a true friend and teacher, leading and instructing when needed, participating and learning with us when appropriate. Because he is able to show concern for the development of individual scholarship and respect for the integrity of students he has made an impact on the Journal and the Law School. Thus, it is with pride and gratitude that we dedicate Volume 5 of the Georgia Journal to Professor Gabriel Wilner.
