

Out: A Panel With UGA Law's LGBTQ Faculty and Staff

Thursday, February 7th, 2019

12 p.m., Classroom A

Lunch Will Be Provided

OUTLaw is pleased to host a first-of-its-kind public conversation among UGA Law's LGBT faculty and staff members about their experiences navigating their queer identities at the law school and in practice. We expect the conversation to cover topics such as how being out at UGA Law has changed over the decades, UGA Law's queer history, and current challenges that queer people face in the profession.

Lunch will be provided, and the UGA Law Library will record the discussion for preservation in the school's permanent collection.

Panelists

Maureen Cahill ('79)

Associate Director for Instruction, Access, and Outreach

M.J. Durkee

Associate Professor of Law

Sandy Mayson

Assistant Professor of Law

Joseph Miller

Professor of Law

&

Laura Woodson ('90)

Associate Director of Career Development and Adjunct Professor of Law

Moderator

Charles Hicks ('20)

President, OUTLaw