will be notified to pick them up at a table near the circulation desk. Please return all items at the drop box outside the library entrance. All regular items will be quarantined for 72 hours.

Faculty & Instruction Services

Most faculty services will continue to be provided virtually. Individual teleconference or videoconference research consultations can be scheduled by appointment through lawref@uga.edu. If you need assistance related to your course, eLC, Zoom access or any other resources to support remote learning preparations, various law school and library team members are available to help. Please use the resources found below, visit our faculty resource guide, or contact lawit@listserv.uga.edu.

Online Study Aids

In addition to the study aids linked below, the library alongside faculty have created a guide related for Take-Home Exams. It includes information specific to study groups with ideas for how to meet virtually and making spending study time effectively.

- West Academic Study Aids Online (Ongoing Access via the Law Library) access several study aid series including: Acing series, Black Letter Outlines, Career Guides, Nutshells, Law Stories series, Concise Hornbook/Hornbook series, Law School Legends Audio series and Sum and Substance Audio series.

 - After you have made an account or if you already have an account you can go to directly to <https://subscription.westacademic.com> and Sign In with your West Academic Study Aids Account. This way you will not have to use the UGA authentication every time.

Textbooks on Course Reserve

As a convenience to students, the library purchases 1 print copy of each required textbook for courses taught each semester. Unfortunately, this fall semester there will be limited options for textbook access since print resources must be quarantined for 72 hours after use. Course reserves will be in person on a first come, first serve basis and due 1 hour before the library closes. The library will purchase extra copies of the more heavily used textbooks, but with the quarantine requirements access to textbooks will be more restricted than during a regular semester.
