MEMORANDUM

TO: Law Students
FROM: Paul M. Kurtz, Associate Dean
RE: Schedule Changes Since Registration
DATE: August 10, 2000

All registration activity beginning today will be undertaken pursuant to the attached schedule which is very similar to the point allocation schedule posted last spring. This memo is designed to inform you of the changes to that schedule:

APPELLATE PRACTICE—During the summer, a new Director of Advocacy has been appointed to replace Bill Weber who left to join an Atlanta law firm. Ms. Kellie Casey is a 1990 graduate of the Law School. She was a member of the National Moot Court team, a pupil in the Lumpkin Inn of Court and was selected to membership in the Order of the Barristers. Upon graduation, she worked as a litigator in several Atlanta law firms. She will be teaching the Appellate Practice course this fall and working with both the Moot Court and Mock Trial programs.

APPROACHES TO LAWYERING—Professor Ball will teach a two-credit section of this course. It is open only to those students who are enrolled in the Legal Aid Clinic. The course will meet from 5:00-7:00 p.m. on Mondays.

HEALTH CARE FINANCING—In order to accommodate those students who would like to take this course as well as Constitutional Law I, Professor Larsen will be teaching it from 9:25 to 10:25 a.m. on both Tuesdays and Thursdays. This will require a couple of makeups which will be announced after consultation with the students in the course. Thus, students may enroll in both the 8:30 section of Constitutional Law I and this course.

MILITARY LAW—Because of the resignation of Bill Weber from the staff, the course in Military Law will not be offered this fall as previously scheduled.

PROSECUTORIAL CLINIC & TRIAL PRACTICE—Wendy Jenkins will be on medical leave in the fall. Replacing her as Interim Director of the Prosecutorial Clinic will be John Pursley. John is a 1994 graduate of the Law School who has been an Assistant District Attorney in Athens/Clarke County since his graduation. While in law school he was a member of the Georgia Law Review. He is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Georgia’s undergraduate program. He has prosecuted approximately 70 felony jury trials during his service in the D.A.’s office and has supervised interns from the Clinic. The classroom component of the Clinic will meet from 5-7 p.m. on Wednesdays as originally scheduled.

Mr. Pursley will also teach Ms. Jenkins’ section of Trial Practice this fall. Because of his time commitments, the course will meet from 5:30 p.m. to 8:20 p.m. on Tuesdays.

MINICOURSES
All minicourses are one-credit courses.

INTERNATIONAL & COMPARATIVE LEGAL RESEARCH AND WRITING—Deals with the sources and techniques for doing research in public and private international law, EC law and the legal systems of countries other than the United States. It is designed for the student doing research and writing or editing in any of the many areas of international and comparative law. The mini-course, which was has been offered for the last several years, will be taught by Dean Wilner and Ms. Anne Burnett, a Law School graduate (Class of 1990) who was Editor in Chief of the Georgia Journal of International and Comparative Law. She currently is Reference/International and Comparative Law Librarian here at the Law School. The course will meet 5-7 p.m. on Wednesdays beginning on August 23 and concluding on October 14.

INTRODUCTION TO GERMAN CIVIL LAW—A general introduction to the German legal system including an overview of the various fields of law (particularly contracts and torts), introduction into civil procedure and the court system, an overview of legal education in Germany and the influence of European law on German national law. The course will be taught by Daniel Robyn, a German national who is an honors graduate of the University of Cologne Law School. He earned his LL.M. at the University of Georgia in 1998 and has interned with a German and an American law firm. He practices in the fields of International Law, Products Liability Law and General Corporate Law. The course will meet from 10:30-11:20 daily in Room E from October 31 through November 17.

PRIVATE INVESTMENT IN INFRASTRUCTURE—Over the past 20 years increasing reliance has been placed on private capital for the provision of infrastructure (electricity, gas, water, sewerage, telecoms, railroads, ports, airports, bridges and tunnels). Government have also sought to raise capital by privatizing state-owned assets either by sales to strategic investors or by public share offerings. This course will cover the public policy and international legal and regulatory environment underlying these developments. Project financing and privatization techniques will be examined highlighting key issues facing investors, lenders, operators and their legal advisors. Several relevant case studies will be examined.

The course will be taught by David Suratgar, who is Of Counsel to LeBoeuf, Lamb, Green & McRae in London. He is a graduate of Oxford University and earned graduate degrees at Columbia University in Law and Economics. He is former Counsel at the World Bank and the European Investment Bank. He was formerly Director and head of Project Finance and International Advisory Services at Deutsche Morgan Grenfell.

The course will meet according to the following schedule:

Wednesday, October 18 9:30-11:20 a.m.
Thursday, October 19 5:30-7:20 p.m.
