The Lawyer.

Oh! the lawyer of '95,
You can gamble he's alive,
Spouting Blackstone, he is simply out o' sight;
As a talker, he's a hummer,
He would make a noble drummer,
For his gall is something monumental, quite.

He's superior to the style,
And he wears an ancient tile
While his straying ringlets wander in the breeze;
He can "play pull" like a winner,
Make a speech or slay a dinner,
Split a bottle or a hair, with equal ease.

When his boning here is done,
He will leave us on the run,
Astarting on his quest for "dust" and fame;
With his fingers on his dip,
And his law books in his grip,
You'd better b'lieve he'll get there just the same.

"H."
